WORK EXPERIENCE

I'm Student currently pursuing a Diploma in Computer Science

- I am currently pursuing a Diploma in Computer Science, where I've honed my skills in web development using HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript, creating sleek and responsive user interfaces. My proficiency extends to React, a powerful JavaScript library for building interactive UIs, allowing me to develop dynamic and efficient web applications.

What Can I Do?

- Make Cool Stuff: I can help turn ideas into reality by building websites and web applications that look good and work smoothly.
- Keep Things Running: I pay attention to the details and make sure everything works as it should, so you can focus on the big picture.
- Learn and Adapt: I'm eager to learn new tools and technologies and adapt to the needs of your projects.
